

MIDCONTINENTAL CHAPTER OF THE MEDICAL LIBRARY ASSOCIATION CV TEMPLATE

CANDIDATE FOR: MCMLA Candidate to MLA Nominating Committee

NAME: Jean L. Sidwell, MLS.

CURRENT POSITION: Associate Director of Learning Resources, A T Still Memorial Library, ATSU / Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO. 63501-1443

EDUCATION:

- Masters of Library & Information Science; University of Missouri, Columbia, MO; May 1993.
- Elementary Life Teacher's Certification 1-8 grade; Northeast Missouri State University; Kirksville, MO; 1988.
- Public School Library Certification; Northeast Missouri State University, Kirksville, MO; 1986.
- Bachelor of Science Education in Mathematics; Northeast Missouri State University, Kirksville, MO; 1971.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES:

- Community Health Information Partnership Symposium (CHIPS), invited participant. Jackson Hole, WY. 10/11/05.
- Regional Medical Library (RML) board member meeting, Salt Lake City, UT. 9/21/05.
- Area Health Education Center (AHEC) Digital Library Academic Library Partners meeting with Missouri AHEC Center Directors and Program Office Directors. Columbia, MO. August 10, 2005.
- "Biomedical Informatics" course, Marine Biological Laboratory, Woods Hole, MA. May 28 – June 4, 2005.
- MCMLA Annual meeting and Regional Medical Library (RML) board member meeting, Kansas City, MO. Sept. 28 - October 2, 2004.
- Served as Continuing Education Chair for Midcontinental Medical Library Association (MCMLA), 2003 – 2005.
- Served as Continuing Education Committee for Midcontinental Medical Library Association (MCMLA), 2001 – 2003.
- Integrated Advanced Information Management Systems (IAIMS) Assistantship at the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1996-1997.
- As an IAIMS Assistant, attended AMIA (American Medical Informatics Association) Annual Fall Symposium "The Emergence of 'Internetable' Health Care" and "Systems That Really Work," October 25-29, Nashville, TN, 1997.

Publication:

- Article: Sidwell, JL. "Addressing the Health Information Needs of Rural Missouri Health Care Providers: An IAIMS Assistant Experience." Medical Reference Services Quarterly, V. 17:1, spring, 1998.
-
- Abstract: Co-author. Accepted for presentation at AMIA Spring Congress, Information Technology in Community Health, San Jose, CA. May 28-31, 1997. Worth ER., DM Witten, JA Mitchell and JL Sidwell. "Formal and Informal Needs of Missouri Rural Health Care Providers."
-
- Lecture: Jean L. Sidwell, M.A.L.S. addressed the IAIMS Internship: Medical Informatics Group Noon Seminar. "Information Access: DocView, Pediatric URL's & Consumer Health Information Issues," at the University of Missouri, Columbia, Department of Medical Informatics. April 15, 1997.

Grants:

2004-2005:

NLM expanded the MAHEC Digital Library Project. Served as a co-investigator and project consultant to the project for one year receiving a fee of $7193.00.

2002-2005:

Applied for and received four Missouri State Library "Show Me Steps to Career Development" grants to attend MCMLA and MLA and take CE courses at national and regional meetings. This grant pays ¾ of all your expenses.

2002-2003:

Served on the planning committee for AHEC Project Funded by National Library of Medicine, which received $133,000 from NLM Extramural Programs, 9/29/02. Partners include two regional AHEC Centers (Mid-MOAHEC) and two Program Offices, at the University of Missouri School of Medicine and NEMOAHEC and Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine.

2001-2003:

Acting Project Coordinator, 5th year of an Osteopathic Indexing grant. Goal: To develop a searchable online database that indexes Osteopathic journal articles, from the beginning of Osteopathy to the present. This database is sponsored by grant money from American Osteopathic Association/American Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine.

1990-1992:

Project coordinator and instructor. National Library of Medicine,

“Individual Library Outreach Project,” 09/28/90-08/31/91; extended to 02/28/92. Served as Outreach Educator for NLM’s Grateful Med search software to access MEDLINE and other NLM databases to unaffiliated health professionals located in twenty-seven counties of Northeast Missouri.

Professional Association Membership:

- NN/LM Regional Medical Library (RML), Board Member 2004-2005.
- Medical Library Association (MLA) member, 1988-present.
- Medical Informatics Group, MLA member, 1995-2001, 2005-2006.
- Osteopathic Libraries SIG, MLA member, 1988-present.
- Hospital Libraries Section, MLA member, 1995-2001.
- Leadership and Management Section, MLA member, 2000.
- Mid-continent Chapter of the Medical Library Association (MCMLA) member, 1988-present.
- MCMLA Education Committee, Chairman, 2003-2005.
- MCMLA Education Committee, Member, 2001-2003
- American Library Association member, 2001.
- Association of Academic Health Sciences Libraries, member, 2001.

WORK HISTORY:

- Associate Director of Learning Resources, ATSU - Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO; October 2003 – present.
- Interim Director of the Library, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO; July, 2001 – September, 2003.
- Medical Reference Librarian; Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO; 1992 – Present.
- Coordinator of Interlibrary Loan Services; Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO; 1988 - 2001.
- Public Services Librarian, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO., 1988-1992.
- Technical Services Librarian, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO., 1987-1988.
- Cataloger, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO., February, 1987 – May, 1987.
- Library Clerk I, November, 1986 – February, 1987.