

St. Louis Medical Librarians Annual Business Meeting and Luncheon
Friday, June 16, 2006
Matthews Medical Books

St. Louis Medical Librarians gathered on June 16 for a buffet luncheon provided by Matthews Medical Books. The luncheon and Annual Business Meeting were held at Matthews' headquarters building in Maryland Heights.

Lynn Kerkemeyer the informative and entertaining presentation on Dale Chihuly's "Glass in the Garden"

President Mary Krieger called the meeting to order. Treasurer Ellen Dickman reported that there was $7237.96 in the bank at this time last year, 2005, and we currently have $8889.66.

Jackie Hittner gave an update on the upcoming MCMLA meeting. It will be Oct. 10-13, 2006 at the Crowne Plaza in Clayton. Two full days of Continuing Education courses are planned. On Oct. 11 there will be a welcoming reception with the meeting Oct. 12-13. This will be the first meeting in the history of MCMLA to offer on-line registrations.

Mary Krieger turned the gavel over to Joan Miller who was installed as President. Renee Gorrell was announced as the President-Elect. Remaining officers are Treasurer Ellen Dickman, Secretary Maria Minowitz and Members-At-Large Gregg Clark and Liz Delfert.

SLML 2006-2007 committee chairs were also announced:

- Archives – Phil Skroska
- Communications – Russ Monika
- CE/Program – Co-chairs Lili Wang, Nora Wikoff, and Assako Holyoke
- Governance – Cheryle Cann
- Membership – Georgiana Grant
- Nominating – Mary Krieger
- Recognition and Awards – Clara McLeod

After a luncheon generously provided to SLML by Matthews, the membership enjoyed an informative and entertaining presentation by Lynn Kerkemeyer from the Missouri Botanical Garden on their current exhibition "Glass in the Garden" featuring works by artist Dale Chihuly.

President Joan Miller adjourned the meeting.
