SAINT LOUIS MEDICAL LIBRARIANS INVITE YOU TO ATTEND:

Medical Library Association Webcast

"Now's the Time: Understanding the EHR Maze and Health Science Librarians' Roles"

Wednesday, March 24, 2010,

1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m., central time.

University of Missouri - St. Louis

South Campus

Education Auditorium

Please RSVP to Jennifermaat plaaip@stlo.mercy.net 314-251-6340

The goal of this program is to clarify the terminology surrounding the emerging electronic health information environment and to illustrate how and why health sciences librarians can and should become engaged with the efforts to achieve the national 2014 goal of instituting an electronic health record for each person in the United States.

Program Objectives

- To remove the ambiguity and confusion revolving around the electronic health environment. Technology, management, and the exchange of health information will be discussed.
- To illustrate the emerging electronic health information environment by profiling working electronic medical records (EMRs), electronic health records (EHRs), and personal health records (PHRs).
- To highlight the recent involvement health sciences librarians have had with EMRs, EHRs, and PHRs.

Directions to the Education Auditorium, UMSL, South Campus

Come through the lobby right outside the Barnes Library's door. Go up the hallway on the right. Follow it to the first cross hallway (across from vending machine) and turn left. Go straight to the stairway to your right and descend carefully (There is an elevator for those so minded – you start on 1-W and go to G-E). Hopefully the auditorium doors will be open and you can walk right in.
